

As a PE teacher, I have several original rules that I use to help my students understand the importance of safety and respect in the gym.