

Using the following information, please provide a detailed, step-by-step explanation of the process for determining the optimal mix of assets in a portfolio, taking into account the expected returns, risks, and correlations of the assets.