

Discrete-time signals are fully characterized by their samples.